

Francisco Salgado received a BFA in Photography and a Masters in Fine Arts in Sculpture from the University of Oregon. He has received the prestigious Jan Zach Award for sculpture. Francisco's photographs and sculptures have been exhibited internationally.

His steel sculpture entitled "Artery" was selected for the permanent collection at PCC's Rock Creek campus.